Mon.

Took Tim his favorite cereal, Cap'n Crunch. He's not sure about giving a speech to his class. Sent blue suit to cleaners.

Tues.

Helped Tim with speech. Told him to pick a topic he enjoys. Tim picked mountain bikes. We had a bowl of my delicious cereal.

Wed.

Tim's speech is getting better. Got him to imagine his audience in their underwear. So he wouldn't be so nervous. Brought Tim 2 more boxes of crunch. He loves that sweet crunchy taste!

Thurs.

Tim can't wait to give speech. Maybe all he needed was to crunch up his confidence. Cleaned my room. Have to stop eating my cereal in bed.

Fri.!

Tim's speech was terrific! Got applause from the whole class. I knew he could do it. Weekend! Time to go to national speed boat races!

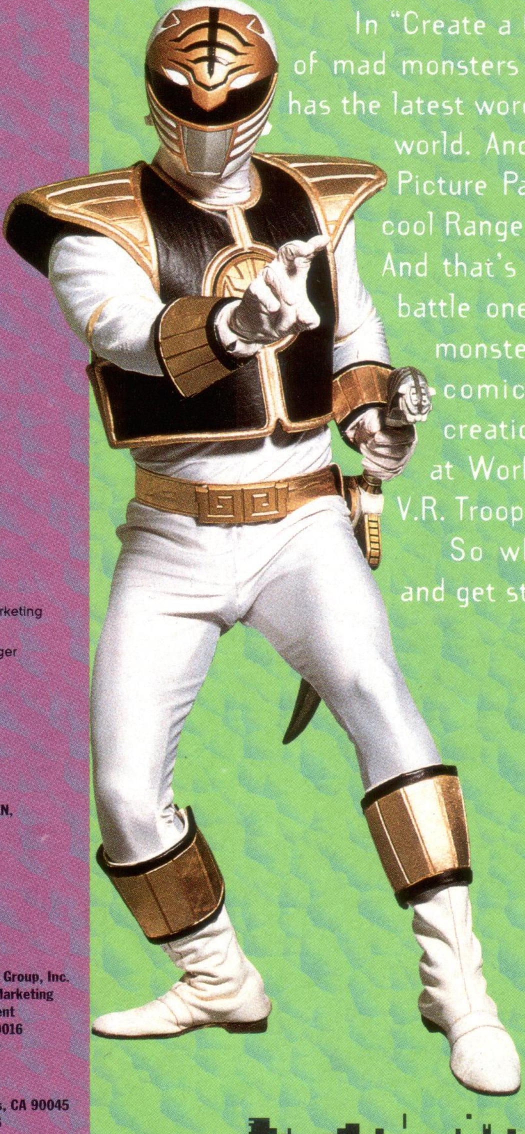
IT'S MORPHIN TIME

Hi, Power Ranger readers! It's Tommy. I'm here to welcome you to our most action-packed issue yet! We've loaded this magazine with awesome stories, puzzles, and games. Just wait till you see what's inside!



In "Create a Creature," you'll find a brand-new collection of mad monsters drawn by readers like you. "Morphin Mail" has the latest word from Power Rangers fans from all over the world. And be sure to check out the "Power Rangers Picture Page," with fantastic photos of kids in their cool Ranger costumes. Talk about morphinomenal! And that's just for starters. The other Rangers and I battle one of Lord Zedd's strongest—and strangest—monsters in "Attack of the Hunkajunk," an all-new comic story. Kid inventors and their amazing creations are featured in "Caution, Kid Inventors at Work." Plus, Bulk and Skull in the spotlight, a V.R. Troopers game, puzzles, jokes, and more!

So what are you waiting for? Turn the page and get started!

Later,

Tommy

MORPHIN MAIL

Power Rangers fans, this is your magazine! Let us know what you think about the Rangers, Lord Zedd, or whatever else is on your mind!

Dear Power Rangers,

I like all the Rangers, but my favorite ones are Tommy and Trini. I like your show and your magazine. I would like to see more of Tommy in your magazine. In the first issue, I liked the jokes, the poster, and "The Prisoners of Zozore." I think it would be cool if you made a comic with Zedd instead of Rita.

Stephanie Robertson
Carmel, Indiana

Lord Zedd challenges Tommy and the rest of the Rangers in "Attack of the Hunkajunk."

Dear Pink Ranger,

I would like to see more of Kimberly and Tommy, because they are my favorite Power Rangers. The villain I hate most is Lord Zedd, because he rules the other monsters. I like this magazine because it gives me something to do in my spare time. I also like it because now I get something in the mail just like my parents.

Cindy Dejesus
Norfolk, Virginia

Dear Power Rangers,

I love watching Power Rangers in my Jason chair!

Gil John Newman
Redding, Connecticut

Send us your photos—birthday parties, costumes, Power Ranger collections—and we'll print 'em!

Dear Power Rangers,

You guys are good at fighting Rita's monsters. Because of you, not one of them has destroyed the earth. My favorite Ranger is the Yellow Ranger. In your first issue, the comic "The Prisoners of Zozore" was really cool because Trini saved the day.

Audrey Dimola
Long Island City, New York

Dear Power Rangers,

I just received my first issue of your magazine. I think it is really neat! Jason is my favorite Power Ranger. I like the cool karate that he does. I think Goldar is the rottenest. And Lord Zedd is spookier than Rita Repulsa. I'm looking forward to future issues .

Diane Perry
Buffalo, New York

Dear Power Rangers,

Your magazine was better than I expected. "Newsbytes From the Command Center" is a great source for stories about books, museums, and news. The puzzles are too simple because I am an older Power Rangers fan, but they are fun anyway. I really like all six Power Rangers. The monsters in Create a Creature are silly and evil. By the way, can you do spotlights on all the characters on the show and put more pullouts in the magazine?

Debra Vera
Diamond Bar, California

Every issue of the magazine has a Power Rangers pullout inside, and this issue's spotlight is on Bulk & Skull.

Dear Power Rangers,

I love your show and the magazine. I would like to see a story about the people who make the TV show. I like Kimberly the best.

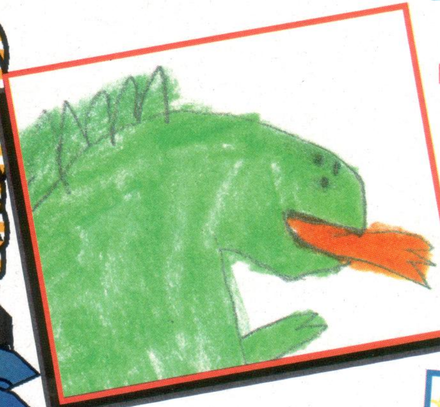
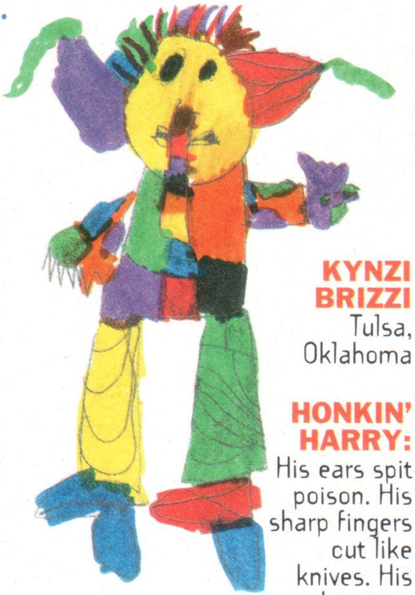
CREATE A CREATURE

You've sent us some of the creepiest creatures we've ever seen, and we want more! Get out your markers and crayons, and show us what kind of monster masterpieces you can create. Don't forget to write down your monster's powers. Here are some of the terrific drawings sent in by readers like you.



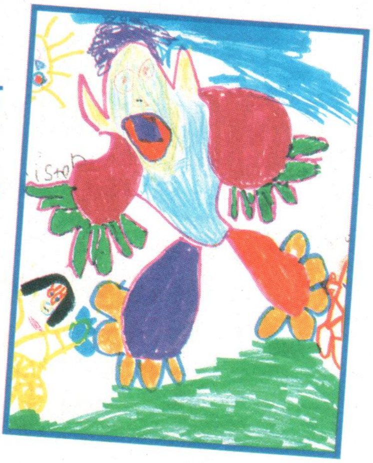
MIKEY BLACKBURN
Beckley, West Virginia

FIREBREATH: When this dude breathes, fire comes out of his mouth and burns everything.



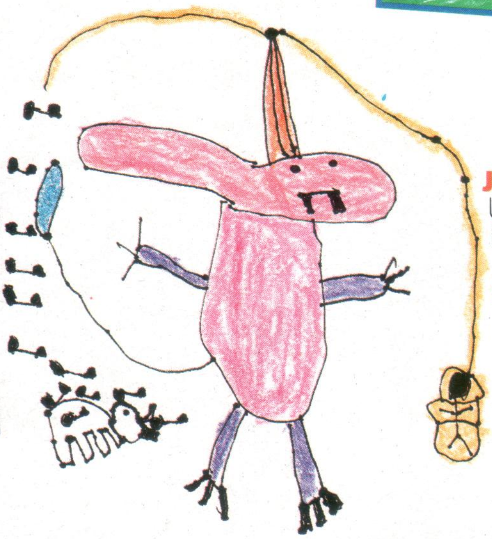
KYNZI BRIZZI
Tulsa,
Oklahoma

HONKIN' HARRY: His ears spit poison. His sharp fingers cut like knives. His big nose honks so loud, it can hurt your eardrums.



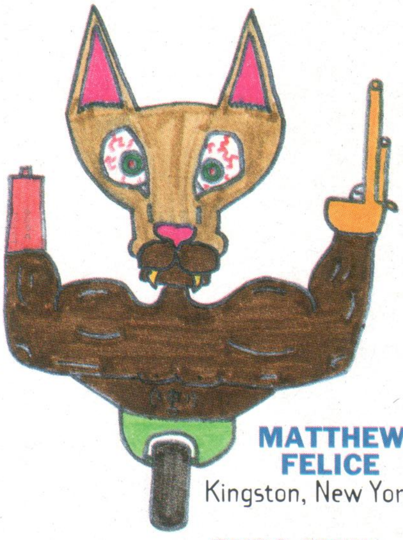
KRISTEN S. HART
Irondale, Missouri

MONSTER HORN-HEAD: His eyes spin and hypnotize. He shoots his horns and nails at the Power Rangers.



JARRED JOHNSON
Union Grove,
North Carolina

SCORPRIAN: He has poisonous scorpions and a zap that drains the Power Rangers' powers. His main power source is on his head.



MATTHEW FELICE
Kingston, New York

TYRO MAN: He has X-ray vision, a laser arm, and a double-barrel gun arm. He can read minds and travel at speeds over 200 m.p.h.

Send your drawings to: CREATE A CREATURE

STUNT MAN MAKES THE ACTION HAPPEN

Before they morph into action, the Power Rangers get help from Jeff Pruit. Is Jeff another super-hero? No, he is the stunt coordinator for The Mighty Morphin Power Rangers TV show.

"My job is to create the action from scratch," says Jeff. He teaches the Rangers how to do amazing stunts, like flipping through the air and landing cool karate kicks. "We try to make it look more like fun than a big knock-down, drag-out battle," he says.

Still, the stunts are risky. "It can be dangerous, because we'll send the actors up on a wire, spinning through the air with no pads underneath," explains Jeff. "There is always the chance of injury, but we try to be as careful as possible." With Jeff's help, the Power Rangers' exciting adventures pack plenty of punch!

THE POWER RANGERS ARE COMING!

You watch them on TV, and now you can see the Power Rangers in person! 7UP Presents the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers Live is a stage show featuring your favorite heroes fighting their most evil foes! The show will visit 65 cities in the next several months. Watch for it in your area! To read all about the exciting Power Rangers tour, check out our Summer issue.

WHO'S FIGHTING WHO?

The Power Rangers are surrounded by Lord Zedd's horrible henchmen. It's time for the Rangers to morph into action! Each Ranger has picked one of Zedd's bad guys to battle. Follow the clues below to find out which Ranger is fighting which villain. Then draw a line from each ranger to the monster he or she is fighting.

CLUES:

- The Red Ranger is fighting a villain with wings.
- The Yellow Ranger is fighting a villain to the left of Pudgy Pig.
- The Blue Ranger is not fighting Pudgy Pig.
- The White Ranger is fighting a villain to the right of the Putty Soldier.
- The Pink Ranger is fighting a monster with a sword.
- The Black Ranger is fighting one of the villains standing next to Eye Guy.

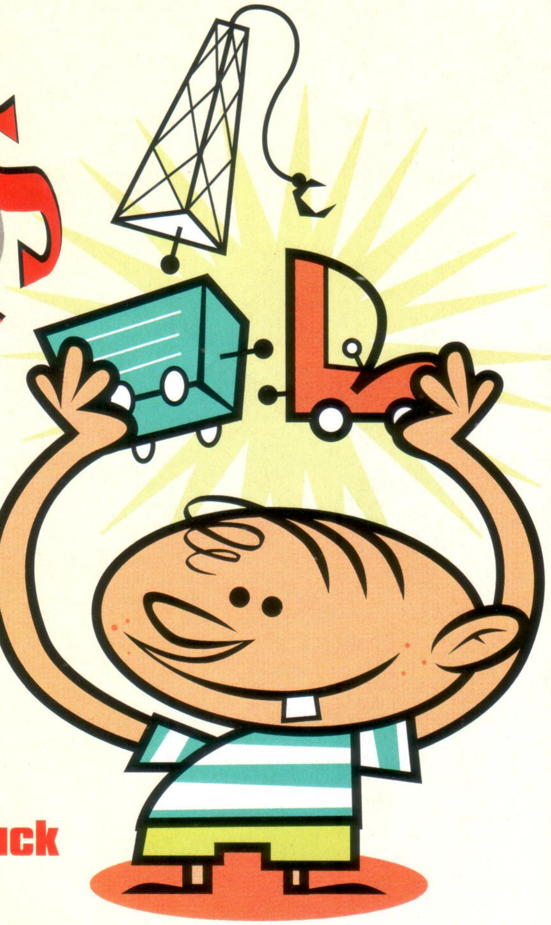
SABAN'S
MIGHTY MORPHIN
POWER RANGERS

CAUTION kid inventors AT WORK!



BY RANDI HACKER, ILLUSTRATIONS BY CHIP WASS

ALMOST EVERYTHING YOU USE HAD TO BE INVENTED BY SOMEONE. TAKE THE BENDABLE STRAW, FOR EXAMPLE: JOSEPH FRIEDMAN CAME UP WITH IT FOR HIS THIRSTY DAUGHTER. WHEN HE GOT TIRED OF WALKING UP STAIRS, JESS RENO INVENTED THE FIRST ESCALATOR. AND THE FIRST CHOCOLATE CANDY BAR WAS CREATED BY A HUNGRY LOUIS CAILLER. THESE ADULTS SAW A NEED FOR SOMETHING AND INVENTED IT.

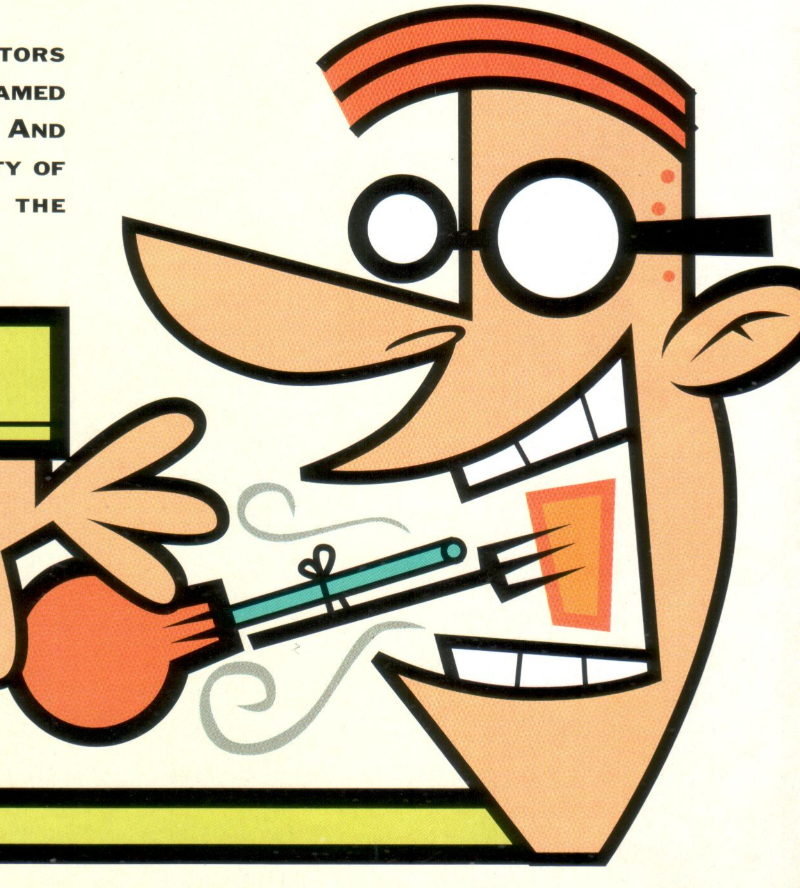
BUT GROWN-UPS AREN'T THE ONLY INVENTORS AROUND. BILLY, THE BLUE RANGER, HAS DREAMED UP HUNDREDS OF COOL GADGETS AND GIZMOS. AND LOTS OF REAL-LIFE KIDS HAVE INVENTED PLENTY OF NEAT THINGS, TOO. HERE ARE A FEW OF THE GREAT KID INVENTORS OF THE PAST.

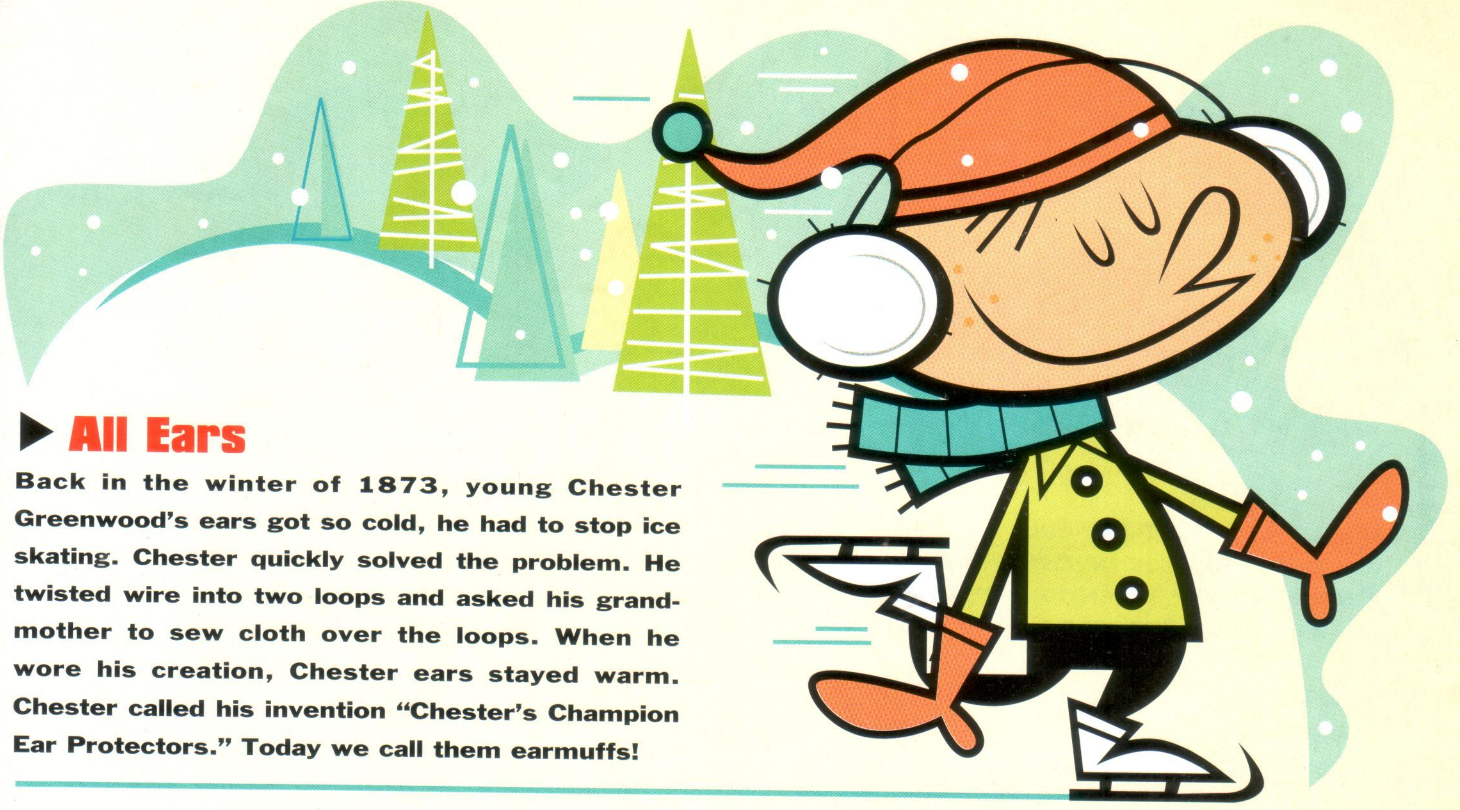
▶ Truck Trick

In 1962, Robert Patch became the youngest known inventor. He was only five when he designed a transformable toy truck that could be taken apart and made into other kinds of trucks.

▶ Blow by Blow

In 1982, Eric Van Paris was tired burning his tongue on food that was too hot. The 14-year-old invented the Cooling Fork. He connected a rubber bulb to the end of a tube and stuck it on a fork. Squeezing the rubber bulb blew cool air onto the food.





All Ears

Back in the winter of 1873, young Chester Greenwood's ears got so cold, he had to stop ice skating. Chester quickly solved the problem. He twisted wire into two loops and asked his grandmother to sew cloth over the loops. When he wore his creation, Chester ears stayed warm. Chester called his invention "Chester's Champion Ear Protectors." Today we call them earmuffs!

And kids are still inventing things today. Last year, Sara Soady won Third Place in the young Eco-Inventors Contest. Her environmentally-sound invention was a wig made entirely out of pencil shavings.

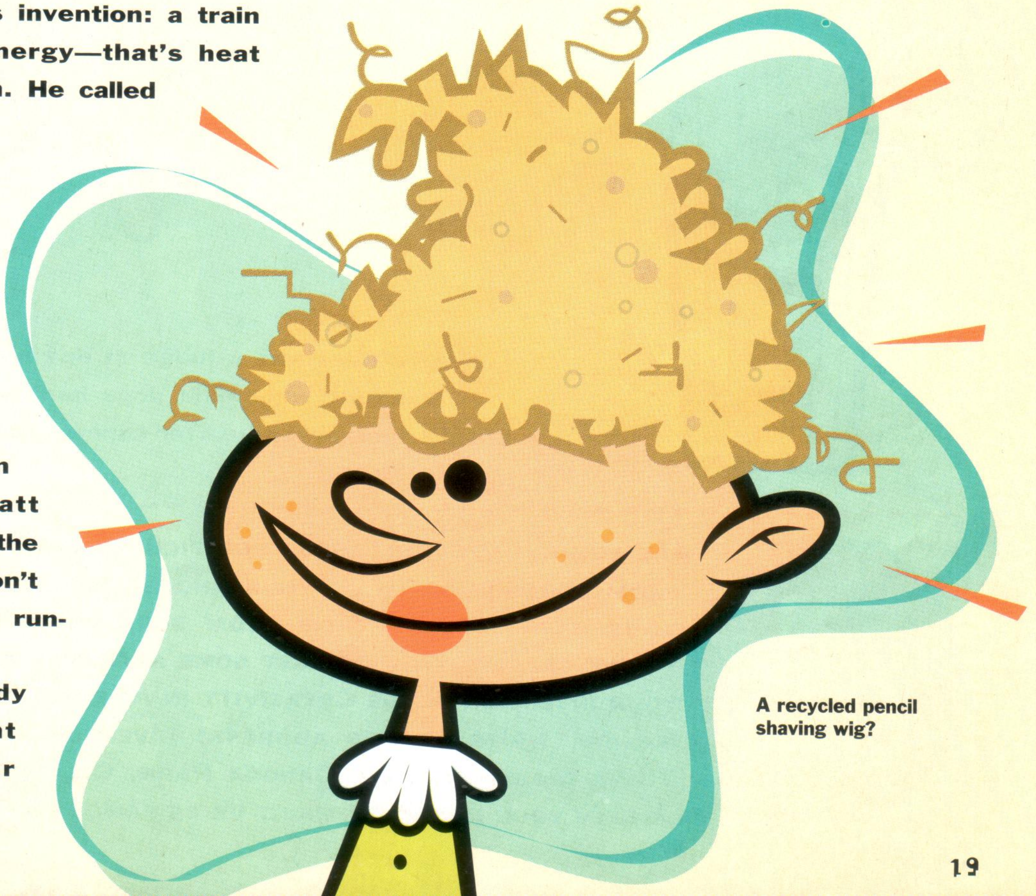
Zach Darwin is another environmental inventor. He won $1,000 for his invention: a train that runs on geothermal energy—that's heat from the center of the earth. He called his invention Sprint.

Thirteen year-old Aaron Littleton and 12-year-old Matt Ambros also invented something in 1994. They play lacrosse, a sport where the players use sticks with string baskets on one end. Lacrosse players catch and carry the ball in this basket. Aaron and Matt invented a device that straps the ball into the basket, so it won't fall out while the players are running across the field.

The two boys have already talked to sports equipment manufacturers about their invention.

Connecting the Dots

In 1824, 15-year-old Louis Braille invented a way for blind people to read. Blind himself, Louis thought up an alphabet of raised dots that people could "read" with their fingers. Now, there are Braille books all over the world!



A recycled pencil shaving wig?

animal inventions

People aren't the only ones who use inventions. Here are some inventions that are literally for the birds—and dogs, too!

Bertha Dlugi wanted to let her bird fly around the house, but she didn't want to clean up after it. She invented the bird diaper in 1956.

A French eye doctor named Denise Lemiere came up with the idea for dog glasses 19 years ago. His glasses not only protected dogs' eyes from dust and wind, they helped pooches see better, too.

Bird Eyer was a judge at dog shows. He didn't like the fact that even champion dogs had dirty teeth. So he invented a special toothbrush just for canine chompers in 1961.

IT'S YOUR TURN!

Are you an inventor? Have you figured out a way to stop your socks from scrunching up in your shoes? Have you invented mittens for your cats to keep them from scratching up the sofa? Whatever you've created, you can get some attention for your invention. Enter your invention in the Creativity in America '95 Expo. For more information, write to this address: Inventors Workshop International, 7332 Mason Avenue, Canoga Park, California 91306. Who knows? Someday your invention might be as famous as the bendable straw!

Grimlord has trapped Ryan Steel at the center of the virtual world. You and a friend must race to rescue the young hero. But be warned—Grimlord has loaded the virtual world with evil Skugs and booby traps. Good luck!

To start: Ask an adult to cut out the pieces below. Choose which V.R. Trooper you want to be. Now you just need two pennies and the adventure is underway!

Rules:

1. Flip one coin to decide which player will go first.
2. Flip the coins to move.
   Two heads equals one space.
   One head and one tail equals two spaces.
   Two tails equals three spaces.
3. Once you choose the direction in which you want to travel, you must continue in that direction until you make it to the next level. If you land on a "Power Pellet" you can change direction if desired.
4. Move to the next level by landing on a Virtual Blast. When you land on a Blast always move to the Blast of the same color in the next world. Be careful because while some Blasts will get you closer to finding Ryan, others will take you further away from your goal.
5. If you land on one of the yellow Skugs, you lose a turn. Who will save Ryan first?

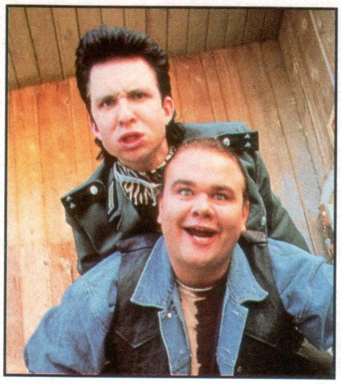
SPOTLIGHT ON...

BULK & SKULL



PERSONALITY: Bulk and Skull may seem equally obnoxious, but there are differences between them. Bulk is the leader of this doofy duo, and Skull follows him around, doing whatever his big buddy tells him to and repeating most of what Skull says. They love to play tricks on the other teens who hang around the Youth Center, although their pranks often go wrong. And they believe that they are the greatest athletes and the coolest dudes on the face of the earth.

TASTE IN CLOTHES: Black leather jackets, chrome jewelry, and bandannas.

SECRET WISH: To become super-heroes and join the Mighty Morphin Power Rangers.
